in a universe where corruption and deception rule all aspects of life sparks of rebellion threaten to ignite born of silence as the resistance leader zarya starska s only goal is to topple the government that destroyed her entire family and left her penniless her biggest asset is a mysterious man known only as kere but kere has a dark secret born into a world that is as privileged as it is corrupt his real name is darling cruel and he is heir to the government zarya wants to overthrow no one has ever seen the real man behind the legend no one except zarya but when she allows a weapon he designed to be used against his beloved sister all bets are off betrayed by the resistance darling s goal is not only to reign but to kill every resistance member he can find zarya must stop darling s reign of terror but can she reach past his insanity to restore the hero who once fought by her side as the author of the conservative mind and other seminal books russell kirk is usually thought of as one of the american conservative political movement s most important progenitors but as this collection demonstrates kirk was perhaps at his best as an essayist this volume also confirms that kirk s was principally a literary and historical conservatism that refused to fit the irreducible complexity of human experience to the requirements of any ideological straitjacket with the essential russell kirk literary critic george a panichas captures the breadth and depth of kirk s intellectual project by gathering together forty four of the most masterful of kirk s essays along with a unique chronology told in kirk s own words and a substantial introduction that articulates the deep humanism that animated kirk s philosophy the result is a carefully assembled volume that gives us a fuller picture of an extraordinary man and writer one whose labors had and continue to have remarkable repercussions on the american literary and political landscape the story of the dramatic struggle between anarchists progressives and plutocrats in new york city in 1914
