message of faith is the second book co authored by retha mcpherson and her teenage son aldo it tells of aldo s miraculous healing and their supernatural journey since a car accident almost claimed aldo s life in 2004 the book contains journal entries in aldo s own handwriting wherein he warns the bride of christ to be ready for the soon arrival of the king during aldo s coma jesus took him to heaven and hell aldo rarely wanted to talk or write about hell jesus said he had to wait for the right time retha explains she goes on to say that time is now here he recently told me jesus said to him aldo tell my bride be prepared i am coming soon aldo s letters will open your eyes to the reality of heaven and hell and the implications of your choices here on earth the book explains that the road of dying to self and living in christ is what purifies the bride and this can only be done if you walk by faith and not by sight believing that god is who he says he is heaven has played a central although often unacknowledged role in western culture this book explores the origins of concepts about heaven and how these may be found in christianity early writings from egypt mesopotamia persia greece and rome are explored with elements of shamanism as well as the hebrew and christian bibles and gnostic texts the nature of the soul the souls journey and the role of morality are also considered the book shows how age old beliefs about life on earth and about heaven are important today activities are included to encourage readers to explore their own thoughts and feelings about heaven drawing on the core values of western civilization the author refines the counterparts in chinese civilization summarized as four core principles duty before freedom obedience before rights community before individual and harmony before conflict focusing on guoxue or sinology as the basis of his approach the author provides detailed explanations of traditional chinese values recent scholars have addressed the concept of guoxue since the modern age sorting through it and piecing it together which has produced an extremely abundant range of information however given that the concepts and theories involved have been left largely unanalyzed this book develops a theoretical treatment of them in several important respects first it analyzes the mindset of guoxue examining the dominant ideas and values of the era from which the term guoxue arose focusing on its connection to early changes and trends in society and culture and distinguishing three key phases of development past scholars mainly had in mind the range of objects studied in guoxue when defining it and what this book underscores is the meaning of guoxue as a modern body of research secondly it assesses several phases in the modern evolution of the body of guoxue research from the beginning to the end of the 20th century i e ending with the later phase of the national heritage movement third and lastly the book explores the various main modes of modern guoxue which correspond step by step with the evolutionary phases of guoxue research heaven is the place where children of god enjoy eternal life and unimaginable beautiful and wondrous things are prepared for them it is very difficult to describe heaven with the language and knowledge of this world but a detailed sketch of the gorgeous kingdom of heaven described in this book gives the readers unforgettable emotion and awakening at least once in a life time one probably has questions like where am i going after life in this world or do heaven and hell really exist many people die even before they find answers to such questions or even if they believe in the afterlife not everybody possesses heaven because not everybody has the proper knowledge heaven and hell are not a fantasy but a reality in the spiritual realm dr jaerock lee relates his expectations of heaven and the afterlife to readers in heaven i the book is directed at the christian audience and would offer another perspective of heaven and hell dr lee describes heaven in all of its glory covered in gold lined streets jeweled buildings and beautiful gardens that never wilt the author discusses about the life and beauty and the different places of heaven and rewards given according to the measure of faith excerpt from heaven and hell what they are and where they are it may be asked if these things are so why don t we know more about them l well it needs intelligence and intelligence rightly used to know anything why don t we know enough to keep our livers and stomachs in order why is it that the whole human race has not yet develop ed enough intelligence to prevent the bellyache simply because we don't use what little intelligence we have in the right way the combined intelligence of a mother and father will not enable their baby to walk it is the same with all the functions of life spiritual as well as physical because Jesus or St Paul or Shakespeare knew or said or did certain things is of not the slightest consequence to us we must know them and do them before they are of any value to us about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works our culture has a lot to say about heaven but too much of it is based more on imaginative speculation or supernatural experiences than on the bible itself in the latest addition to the theology in community series Christopher Morgan and Robert Peterson have assembled an interdisciplinary team of evangelical scholars to explore the doctrine of heaven from a variety of angles among other contributors Ray Ortlund examines the concept of heaven in the Old Testament Gerald Bray explores the history of theological reflection about heaven and Ajith Fernando looks at persecuted saints special relationship to heaven in the New Testament this team of first rate scholars offers modern readers a comprehensive overview of this often misunderstood topic shedding biblical light on the eternal hope of all Christians part of the theology in community series
